Poland: Status of Polish Restrictions* (Information as of 2 August 1983)

	Workers	Students and Educators	General
Eased or Lifted	Can change jobs, but could be forced to wait 6 months. (T)		Passport restrictions eased; Poles may visit in the West if invited by friend or relative.
	Can not be fired summarily for illegal protests, but can be fined. (P)
Maintained	46-hour work week can be required apparently at regular hourly rate. (T)		Anyone organizing or conducting an illegal protest action is liable to 3 years' imprisonment. (P°)
	Applicants must present labor certificate from previous employer. (T)	184	nyone disseminating tape record- ig or films that contain "false information which may cause
	Those who leave job without permission could be paid the lowest wages rate permissable in new position. (T)		grave damage" to Poland is liable to 5 years' imprisonment. (P°)
	"Shirkers" still face possible im- prisonment. Also can now be as- signed to a labor-short sector. (T)
New Measures	Self-management bodies can be dissolved, instead of 6 month suspension. (T)	Student organizations must be registered or approved by the Council of Ministers. (T)	Leadership boards of associations can be replaced temporarily pending elections. (T)
	Right to form alternative trade unions postponed indefinitely. (T)	Resolutions passed by Higher Education Councils can be nul- lified by the Minister of Educa- tion. (T)	Meetings can be suspended by local governments if considered "threat to public order." (T)
		University senates can be suspended for up to six months by the Minister of Education. (T)	Chairman of State Council may introduce state of emergency in part or all of Poland if internal security threatened. (P)
		University administrators and faculty members can be directly fired or transferred and temporarily replaced by the Minister	Police have greater latitude to use weapons and to search citizens and vehicles. (P)
	* .	of Education. (T) University teachers can be fired	Anyone participating in an organization which was dissolved or refused legal status liable to 3 years'
		if their "educational influence" undermines "socialist education	imprisonment. (P)
		of students." (P) Secondary school teachers can	Citizens subject to military courts for "serious crimes against the state" (terrorism, conspiracy, sabo
		be fired by local governments. (T)	tage, subversion, and dissemination of propaganda opposed to the alliances). (P)
		University students can be expelled by the Minister of Education. (T)	bills, posters, or drawings subject t fines or imprisonment. (P)
	•	Students' assemblies can be suspended by local governments. (T)	Censorship extended to art and photographic exhibits, trade union publications, and scientific and adademic papers and their bibliographies. (P)

^{*}Does not include restrictions lifted in December 1982.

EURM-10210

⁽T) = Temporary regulations in effect until 31 December 1985. (P) = Permanent legislation approved by Parliament 28 July 1983. (P*) = Permanent legislation added to Penal Code, December 1982.